DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows: claim 4, line 14, "trasnport" has been replaced with -- transport --.

Examiner's Statement Of Reason For Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1-13 are allowable.

Regarding claim 1, the prior art of record does not teach all the combined elements and or components for a sheet lateral edge detector including a first photo sensor for measuring light passing through said light-receiving window partially shielded by said lateral edge of said recording sheet;

a second photo sensor disposed away from the first photo sensor in a widthwise direction of said recording sheet, for measuring dark current; and a judging device for judging the position of said lateral edge of said recording sheet from the difference signal between output signals of the first and second photo sensors.

first and second recording sheets, a width of the first recording sheet being larger than a width of the second recording sheet including a second photo sensor for receiving light passed through said second light receiving window partially shielded by said lateral edge of said second recording sheet; a recording head for printing on said first or second recording sheet on line-by-line basis extending in said widthwise direction, said recording head having a length larger than said width of said first recording sheet;

a shielding device for shielding said second light receiving window in printing on said first recording sheet, and for shielding said first light receiving window in printing on said second receiving sheet.

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art of records does not teach all the combined steps and all the combined elements / components as discussed above in the "examiner's statement of reasons for allowance".

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
